“The best way to get the right answer on the internet is not to ask a question; it’s to post the wrong answer”

Cunningham’s law

named by Steven McGeady in 2010, after advice from Ward Cunningham in the early ’80s

Plot twist:
he never said it

> “a misquote that disproves itself by propagating through the internet”
>
> Ward Cunningham

The wrong quote spread

Which kind of proves the law

Ward Cunningham invented the wiki

1992 coins “technical debt”
1995 builds the first wiki
